

This is a list of resources for estimators in the state of Colorado for households impacted by the 2020 Colorado Fires. This list was compiled by United Policyholders and the Grand County Builders Association after interviewing and checking references for each estimator. See United Policyholders' article on Reviewing Adjusters and Contractors estimates for more information: www.uphelp.org/estimates

United Policyholders and the Grand County Builders Association do not endorse or warrant the quality of any of the listed professionals. Check references, license status, and membership in professional associations before hiring.
